Alma Mater

Hail to thee our Alma Mater,
   Faithful guide of youth,
Holding high amid the darkness
   Duty, light, and truth;
Still above, the skies attend thee,
   Still thy stately columns stand,
Still thy sons and daughters love thee
   Sing thy praises o'er the land.
All the earth's resplendent beauty
   Nature gathered here,
Rolling lawns and trees and grasses
   On thy hillsides fair;
Happy days within thy shadow,
   Friends and comrades we have won.
Fill our hearts with exaltation
   For thy work so nobly done.
When beloved Alma Mater
   Memory recalls
Other days of youth and laughter
   In thy gracious halls;
When thy sons and daughters scattered
   Turn again to thee,
Still thy lamp is brightly lighting
   Us afar, that we may see.

Academic Honors and Heraldry

Baccalaureate degree students are graduated with honors upon achievement of the grade point average as indicated on all semester hours transferred to or attempted at Eastern and upon completion of degree requirements.

Summa Cum Laude – GPA of 3.9 or higher
Magna Cum Laude – GPA of 3.7 but less than 3.9
Cum Laude – GPA of 3.5 but less than 3.7

Associate degree students are graduated with honors upon achievement of the grade point average as indicated on all semester hours transferred to or attempted at Eastern and upon the completion of 64 credit hours.

With High Distinction – GPA of 3.7 or higher
With Distinction – GPA of 3.5 but below 3.7

As a further distinguishing feature, those who are baccalaureate degree candidates for honors wear a maroon sash on which is a white stripe. Candidate honors for this ceremony are based on hours attempted through the spring semester and grades earned through the preceding fall semester.

Baccalaureate degree students graduate as Honors Scholars when they complete 28 hours of special course work in Honors Program courses, satisfy all comprehensive and program requirements for an undergraduate degree from this University, and achieve a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0. Honors Scholars wear a special maroon mortar board at graduation.

Academic Regalia

The academic regalia you see at Commencement developed from the traditional academic and clerical dress worn at European universities in the middle ages. In the United States the use of academic regalia dates to the American Colonial period. Until the Civil War formal academic dress was worn most of the time, by the faculty when teaching, by the students when studying and attending class. After the Civil War academic regalia became reserved for ceremonies. In 1893 an Intercollegiate Commission composed of representatives from leading American universities established a system of academic dress – a code of academic regalia, describing cut, style, and colors to indicate fields of learning. A revised code was approved in 1932, and revised again in 1959, by the American Council on Education (ACE). The regalia you see used by Eastern Kentucky University follows this academic regalia code.
Doctoral Degree Regalia

Doctoral gowns are similar to specialist's and master's gowns, but are noted by three velvet bars, or chevrons. The full sleeves appear more oblong at the end than baccalaureate gowns. Students earning a doctoral degree at EKU wear a gown with three maroon chevrons on the sleeve. The President of the University is the only participant to wear a gown with four chevrons on the sleeve. While doctoral gowns are traditionally black some universities have designated other colors to be their institutional doctoral gowns. Traditional academic headwear for a doctorate degree is a square velvet mortarboard, or a soft rounded velvet tam, with gold tassel.

Doctoral hoods have a classic flap cape as well as a cowl and yoke. Maroon and white satin on the inside cowl indicates a doctorate earned at EKU. In addition to these colors on the inside of the EKU hood, there is a maroon outer cape. Doctoral hoods are the largest hood and the velvet trim indicates the field of learning for the doctoral degree. However, if the degree earned (as with most faculty) is a Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.) the velvet trim of the hood is always dark blue velvet, regardless of the field of learning. If the doctoral degree is an Education Doctorate (Ed.D.) then the velvet on the hood is light blue, indicating the field of study is Education. If the degree is Doctor of Nursing Practice (D.N.P.) then the velvet on the hood is apricot, indicating the Nursing field.

Specialist Degree Regalia

A specialist degree requires additional academic work beyond that of a master's degree. The gown worn by those being conferred with a specialist degree has long oblong open sleeves, but no chevrons. The hood for a specialist degree is as wide as a doctoral hood but has no cape. The hood is silk lined to indicate the institution where the degree was earned. The velvet trim border indicates the field of learning of the specialist degree.

Master's Degree Regalia

The master's degree gown is the same as that worn by the specialist degree recipients. A master's hood is smaller than a doctoral or specialist hood. It is not as wide and has no cape. The velvet trim border signifies the specific degree and field of learning.

Most of the color and meaning of the regalia is found in the hood worn by the advanced degree holders. These are silk-lined with the color or colors of the institution conferring the degree. The official colors of Eastern Kentucky University are maroon and white. The border of the hood is velvet and its color signifies the field of learning to which the degree pertains as follows:

- Doctorate in Education/Specialist in Education, LIGHT BLUE (wide band);
- Specialist in Psychology, GOLDEN YELLOW (wide band);
- Master of Arts in Education, LIGHT BLUE;
- Master of Arts, WHITE;
- Master of Fine Arts, BROWN;
- Master of Business Administration, DRAB;
- Master of Music, PINK;
- Master of Public Administration, PEACOCK BLUE;
- Master of Public Health, SALMON PINK;
- Master of Science in Nursing, APRICOT;
- Master of Science, GOLDEN YELLOW;
- Master of Arts in Teaching, LIGHT BLUE.

Baccalaureate Degree Regalia

Students earning their baccalaureate degree wear a simple black gown with long pointed sleeves. They do not wear a hood and have a basic black mortarboard with a maroon and white tassel. Students who are graduating from the EKU Honors Scholar program wear a maroon mortarboard.

Associate Degree Regalia

The gown worn by one who has earned the associate degree is similar to the baccalaureate gown, except that it is gray in color. A gray mortarboard is also worn.

University Mace

The production of the Mace in 1960 was a cooperative effort involving research by Miss Annie Alvis, supervising teacher in the Laboratory School; carpentry work by Dr. James Masterson, then student shop foreman in the Department of Industrial Arts; designing, carving, metal enameling, and finishing by Mr. Dean Gatwood, a member of the faculty of the Department of Art. Mr. Gatwood directed the refurbishing of the EKU Mace.

Charge to the Graduating Class

As Eastern Kentucky University confers on you the certification of achievement represented by a degree, you take on a new relationship to the University, the Commonwealth, and to the greater society. You are now a son or daughter of Eastern. You will be looked upon as an educated person, and the nature and quality of your life will reflect both upon you and your Alma Mater. Remember, you are our ambassador wherever you go.

Eastern has succeeded if you have acquired here the ability to think critically and act constructively; if you now have, based on the knowledge of the past, a vision of the future. Moreover, we are further contented if you have developed skills that will be used in the service of humanity. May you have a full life, based upon personal integrity and respect of others. As an educated person you should find no satisfaction with the commonplace in character, attitude, and value. By your example you should raise the intellectual and moral tone of society.

The Commonwealth of Kentucky has been a partner in the educational program that has brought you to this fine hour. It has contributed generously to the cost of education in order to prepare you for high service. The need to maintain opportunities and programs of excellence will become more urgent as our society continues to increase in complexity. We are confident you will help ensure that those who follow you will have opportunities equal or superior to those which you have enjoyed. Your appreciation to Eastern Kentucky University can best be expressed by the life that you lead.

Alma Mater

Hail to thee our Alma Mater,
Faithful guide of youth,
Holding high amid the darkness
Duty, light, and truth;
Still above, the skies attend thee,
Still thy stately columns stand,
Still thy sons and daughters love thee
Sing thy praises o'er the land.
All the earth's resplendent beauty
Nature gathered here,
Rolling lawns and trees and grasses
On thy hillsides fair;
Happy days within thy shadow,
Friends and comrades we have won.
Fill our hearts with exaltation
For thy work so nobly done.
When beloved Alma Mater
Memory recalls
Other days of youth and laughter
In thy gracious halls;
When thy sons and daughters scattered
Turn again to thee,
Still thy lamp is brightly lighting
Us afar, that we may see.
